Twx·21
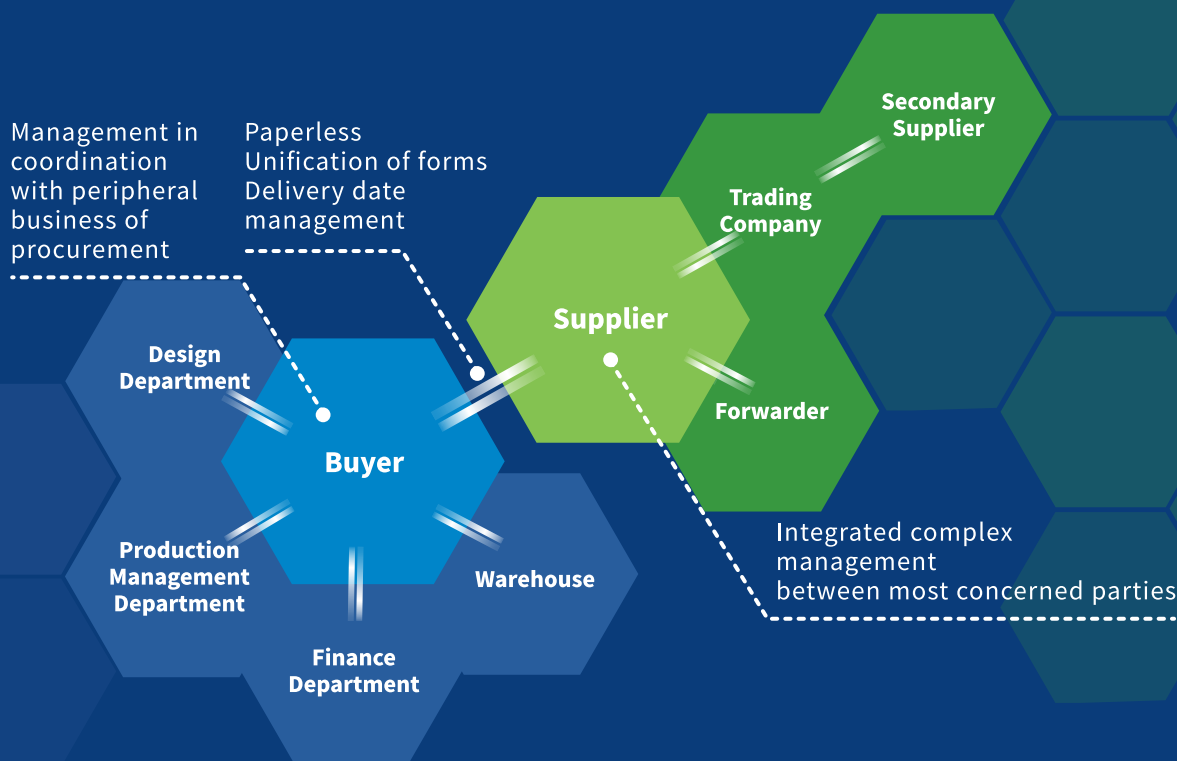

Trade Winds for dX Digital Transformation

TWX-21 is a cloud-based solution which enables global electronic commerce, including in China and other Asian countries. It supports the optimization of supply chains, such as through linkage with related businesses

Management in coordination with peripheral business of procurement

Paperless
Unification of forms
Delivery date management

Secondary Supplier

Trading Company

Supplier

Design Department

Buyer

Production Management Department

Warehouse

Forwarder

Finance Department

Integrated complex management between most concerned parties

Users: Over 65,000 companies in 30 countries

Accessibility: Available in 3 languages (Japanese · Chinese · English)

Help Desks: Available in 6 languages
(Japanese · Chinese · English · Indonesian · Thai · Malaysian)

↑User deployment status

Optimize your supply chain with Twx·21

1 Go paperless, unify forms, manage complicated delivery dates, visualize progress

2 Get competitive quotes from multiple suppliers and collaborate with multiple departments including design and development

3 Manage the trade with import/export forwarders

4 Manage complicated business with trading companies and secondary suppliers

5 Collaborate with production management, warehouse management and financial management within upper / lower procurement operation

6 Long-term storage of all transaction data on the cloud

7 Analyze and utilize data

BUYER

SUPPLIER

$12,030

A社 B社 C社 D社

Cloud-based solutions not limited to any size and industry of the enterprise.

Low cost

Quick installation

Robust security environment

Secure maintenance operation support

Data analysis

TWX-21 ensures long term cloud-based preservation of transaction data.
By utilizing it for various analyses and evaluations, providing extra value to further enhance procurement operations.

Home Page

Product Introduction Video